The Michigan Premier of

The PAGANS

Written by Ann Noble

Directed by Phil Hadley

“The Pagans” is a heartwarming celebration of the humor and humanity of a volatile Irish family, whose interactions are alternately stormy and affectionate. The play was the recipient of the 2001 Stanley Drama Award and the 2002 Joseph Jefferson Award for New Work. It was also nominated for the American Theater Critics Association’s New Plays Award in 2002.

“Vivid” said the L.A. Times. “Recommended” said the L.A. Weekly.

“Excellent” said Entertainment Weekly.
